Director, Defense Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20301

Dear Dan:

I appreciate your letter of 31 December 1974 advising of the selection of [] of the DIA Information Systems Office to serve on the IHC Support Staff.

[] has told me of your original guidance to him as Chairman, IHC, namely to make this technical subject intelligible and straightforward for top management and to stimulate a concerted approach to these problems.

I agree with this guidance. Information handling is increasingly complex and costly for us all. Effective solutions can be achieved only through genuine community cooperation. Your willingness to make available a high quality staff member, such as [] to work on these problems is a demonstration of DIA's intention to play an important, constructive role in this joint undertaking.

Sincerely,

/s/ Samuel V. Wilson

Dear Sam,

STAT [redacted] of my Intelligence Information Systems
Office will be reporting to [redacted] shortly after 5 January STAT to serve as the DIA representative on the IHC Support Staff.
STAT As you know, [redacted] is working hard with the IHC to improve community information handling. I think [redacted] will be STAT a great help to him because of his personal qualities and experience in DoD intelligence information systems. STAT

While I was with the IC Staff, I developed an appreciation of the community's information handling problems and of [redacted] efforts to devise solutions to them. I believe that realistic solutions can be achieved only through genuine cooperation by members of the community. I hope you will understand that in assigning an individual with the high qualifications of [redacted] STAT STAT [redacted] I intend to emphasize DIA's continuing commitment to the goals of the IHC and my intention to assist wherever possible in solving community information handling problems.
